 - If both the prime and subcontractor are members, the prime contractor pays assessments for the work that they do, and the subcontractors pays assessments for the work that they do.
 - If a prime is a member and has a non-member subcontractor performing assessable work, the prime contractor is responsible for payment on the assessable work.
 - If the prime is a non-member, the subcontractor is responsible for any assessable work that they do.
- New members will not be assessed for any project awarded prior to joining the Chapter, unless extraordinary assistance for any such project is deemed necessary and appropriate by the Member. An hourly fee for such assistance will be $100 per hour above 12 hours of assistance.
- Assessment rates for new members will be capped at 6,000 tons/project awarded during the first four quarters of membership, and at 12,000 tons/project awarded during the fifth through eighth quarters of membership.
